

POSITIONS VACANT APPLY NOW!

Etheridge Shire Council is seeking applications for the following positions, if you are interested in working in Local Government we have a role for you.

Community Recovery Resilience Officer

The Community Recovery & Resilience Officer is to enhance resilience in the community by developing and implementing community development initiatives and programs. Specifically, the planning and implementation of a Community Resilience Network (CRN) and undertaking broad community education and awareness raising to increase levels of disaster prevention and preparedness in the community.

Community Recovery Rebuild Support Officer

The Community Recovery Rebuild Support Officer is to support the long-term recovery, rebuilding and resilience of local residents and strengthen Council's capacity to respond to future disaster events. This role is focused on assisting event-impacted households by providing timely information to support informed decisions regarding reconstruction, facilitating access to appropriate rebuild pathways, and ensuring affected residents are supported in restoring homes to a safe and habitable condition as soon as practicable. The position also provides case management and navigation support to help individuals work through complex systems and processes associated with rebuilding, while coordinating referrals to essential health and social services to support psychological and social recovery outcomes for the community.

These roles are for a fixed term and are funded under the Queensland and Australian Government's Disaster Recovery Funding Arrangements.

The Etheridge Shire covers approximately 40,000 square kilometres of Queensland's Gulf Savannah Region. The Council offices are located in Georgetown approximately 380 kilometres west of Cairns and 360 kilometres east of Karumba.

Georgetown provides the shire with a clean, safe, modern service hub, you can live in a great small town still within reach of the coast. There is an award-winning daycare, an excellent primary school, golf course and a multi-sports centre (Tennis, Squash, Gym, Lawn Bowls) with a beautiful swimming pool.
